

Founded in 2018, National Rock Show's Patriotic Performance is a must for political rallies and American celebrations. Representing America's Rock-Star, Western, Military and Blue Collar Grit, this rock act embraces Faith, Family, Freedom in song and live performance.

Named and titled for their spectacular stage show, National Rock Show released "Make America Great Again," in 2019 and reached national attention. With several follow-ups in 2020, the band's new releases are widely anticipated in 2022.

National Rock Show has appeared in political rallies and events throughout the United States since 2019. Writing songs for spiritual hope and liberty, this North Carolina based group offers a voice from the people for the people. With a passion and desire to reclaim our country, National Rock Show delivers a homecoming experience for all ages. For more info, visit nationalrockshow.com
